

BOSTON UNIVERSITY STUDY ABROAD PADUA

Prof. Melissa Holt

Associate Professor in Counseling Psychology at Boston University will talk on

«Bullying: Myth vs. Reality»

Bullying is widely discussed in the media as well as in popular culture more broadly. However, some of the information presented is not accurate. In this talk, common misperceptions about bullying will be clarified using research-based evidence. For more information about Dr. Holt's research team, please see: www.bu.edu/bullying.
